everyone starts out in life on the same level some achieve fortune and fame others do not that doesn't mean that they have lesser value or lead less meaningful lives than those who have achieved glory everybody means something to someone and is important to them to those who have achieved great things that have benefitted humanity my hat goes off to them to those who have achieved fame and fortune through their hard work i say good for you you worked for it i may not have amassed a great fortune in my lifetime nor achieved fame but i am rich nevertheless i can count on both hands the ones i love and the ones who love me i can boast however of two achievements of which i am extremely proud the first is my two children christine and kevin no father can be prouder of his children than i there i can say george you did well the second achievement of which i'm very proud is the collection of poems that i've composed throughout the years my english teachers gave up on me in high school they figured i didn't have a snowball's chance in hell where it came to creative writing i can't blame them either i didn't see writing in my future at the age of 16 i was content to speak the english language and that was enough for me i always enjoyed reading poems in school some more than others after i graduated and joined the work force i found that i had a knack for composing as time went by my poems got better and better i was actually proud of the end product here again i can say well done george everyone wants to leave something of themselves behind as a testimony to their passing through this world and so dear children i leave you my collection of poems when your eyes peruse the words that i've written i'll be there beside you as for you

dear reader i hope you take great pleasure in reading my poems
