although there have been a number of studies on black resistance very few of these have focused exclusively on such a wide range of resistance campaigns and strategies within a single volume one of the central arguments of this study is that from as early as the sixteenth century when europeans attempted to systematically exploit africans black people have engaged in a variety of organised and sustained resistance campaigns to assert their independence and identity this book examines some of the different strategies employed by black people in africa and the diaspora in response to european domination and exploitation drawing upon research from scholars based at the university of cape coast in ghana and the university of the west indies jamaica this collection of original essays covers the academic disciplines of african and caribbean history literature politics and psychology despite these different approaches the consistent theme throughout centres on the strategies employed by black people to resist european domination and oppression by fighting for their freedom at every possible opportunity whether they were in africa britain or the caribbean involvement by men especially african american men in the christian church has always been notoriously sparse pastors seminary scholars and christian leaders male and female have pondered the problem but it remains a question the women ask what is wrong with the brothers my response is why does it have to be something wrong with the brothers could it be that as african american males want to hear something other than what is being preached have we considered preaching the gospel of christ from a masculine perspective is it possible that because the majority of churches are 70 female that the good news is inadvertently preached by male and female preachers from an implicit female perspective perhaps preachers are subconsciously more concerned with maintaining the satisfaction of the bulk of the tithing parishioners who are women let the men fight challenges the notion that the fault resides with african american men and strives to provide a male sensitive word however there is a caveat the warning is upon learning and accepting the truth god expects us to go tell and teach others matthew 28 19 20 says go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the father and of the son and of the holy ghost 20
