an intersectional investigation of identity formation in marcel proust s magnum opus as metonyms for broader categories such as class sexuality and ethnicity the three most discussed identity groups in proust s À la recherche du temps perdu snobs invertes and jews prove to be deeply intertwined and perplexing representations attentive to these interwoven complexities proust s snobs invertes and jews examines the novelist s exploitation of classification systems as a means to subvert the notion of a fixed identity to illustrate proust s challenges to a social order that restricts our perceptions of identity adeline soldin addresses the inconsistencies and friction surrounding the portrayal of these key figures in his seven volume novel many scholars have recognized that the narrator s formative journey in la recherche leads to disillusionment and increased mockery of his fellow characters soldin contends however that proust does not merely deride characters behavior but rather interrogates their diverse motivations and tendencies thereby exposing the performative nature of identity proust s snobs invertes and jews draws on judith butler s theories of performativity to illustrate proust s precocious portrayal of identity in la recherche as an elusive unattainable idea that characters pursue yet consistently fail to establish ultimately the enigmatic and anonymous narrator models fluidity and promotes fantasy and imagination to compensate for the limitations imposed on individuals by social and linguistic conventions one of the most books written in the past half century robert m pirsig s zen and the art of motorcycle maintenance is a powerful moving and penetrating examination of how we live and a breathtaking meditation on how to live better here is the book that transformed a generation an unforgettable narration of a summer motorcycle trip across america s northwest undertaken by a father and his young son a story of love and fear of growth discovery and acceptance that becomes a profound personal and philosophical odyssey into life s fundamental questions this uniquely exhilarating modern classic is both touching and transcendent resonant with the myriad confusions of existence and the small essential triumphs that propel us forward a penguin classics deluxe edition of hans christian andersen s famous tales from award winning translator tiina nunnally hans christian andersen was the profoundly imaginative writer and storyteller who revolutionized literature for children he gave us the now standard versions of some traditional fairy tales with an anarchic twist but many of his most famous tales sprang directly from his imagination the thirty stories here range from exuberant early works such as the tinderbox and the emperor s new clothes through poignant masterpieces such as the little mermaid and the ugly duckling to more subversive later tales such as the ice maiden and the wood nymph for more than seventy years penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the english speaking world with more than 1 700 titles penguin classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators
