in the descent of alette alice notley presents a feminist epic a bold journey into the deeper realms alette the narrator finds herself underground deep beneath the city where spirits and people ride endlessly on subways not allowed to live in the world above traveling deeper and deeper she is on a journey of continual transformation encountering a series of figures and undergoing fragmentations and metamorphoses as she seeks to confront the tyrant and heal the world using a new measure with rhythmic units indicated by quotation marks notley has created a spoken text a rich and mesmerizing work of imagination mystery and power a career spanning collection of inspiring revelrous essays about art and artists like love is a momentous raucous collection of essays drawn from twenty years of maggie nelson s brilliant work these profiles reviews remembrances tributes and critical essays as well as several conversations with friends and idols bring to life nelson s passion for dialogue and dissent the range of subjects is wide from prince to carolee schneemann to matthew barney to lhasa de sela to kara walker but certain themes recur intergenerational exchange love and friendship feminist and queer issues especially as they shift over time subversion transgression and perversity the roles of the critic and of language in relation to visual and performance arts forces that feed or impede certain bodies and creators and the fruits and follies of a life spent devoted to making arranged chronologically like love shows the writing thinking feeling reading looking and conversing that occupied nelson while writing iconic books such as bluets and the argonauts as such it is a portrait of a time an anarchic party rich with wild guests a window into nelson s own development and a testament to the profound sustenance offered by art and artists sometimes the word lyric seems to appear everywhere either it s used interchangeably with the word poetry or it attaches to descriptions of literature art film and even ordinary objects in order to capture some quality of aesthetic appeal or meaning lyric trade is not yet another attempt to define the lyric but instead it digs into how poems use lyric in relation to race gender nation and empire engaging with poets such as gwendolyn brooks h d lorine niedecker alice notley and myung mi kim this book asks what does lyric mean and why should it matter to poets and readers lyric trade argues that lyric in the postwar long poem not only registers the ideological contradictions of modernism s insistence on new forms but that it also maps spaces for formal reimaginings of the subject presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the new york schools of the early twentieth century
